FREE TRAINING IN THE MOODY BIBLE INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D.D., President

Founded by the great evangelist and Christian educator D. L. Moody in 1886

General

The object of the Institute is expressed in its service rendered by its students in all parts of the world, who are pastors, pastors' assistants, evangelists, missionaries, teachers, directors of religious education, gospel singers, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. secretaries, rescue mission superintendents, deaconesses and workers in Sunday-Schools and boys' and girls' clubs.

Educational Department

This is divided into Day, Evening and Correspondence Schools. The General Course of the Day School is covered in two years. Its enrolment last year was 1236. Five other courses are Missionary, Pastors, Religious Education, Jewish Missions and Swedish-English. Advanced work is taken in these courses covering longer periods of time.

The Evening School permits students to take work equivalent to the Day School, making them eligible to the same diploma, though it necessarily covers a longer period of time. A shorter course is possible, however, leading to a certificate. The enrolment last year was 1140.

The Correspondence School is for those who can not attend the Institute in person. Ten courses are offered covering different methods of Bible Study, Practical Christian Work, Evangelism, Christian Evidences, Fundamentals of the Faith and Missions. The last two have been added recently. For each of these courses a limited fee is charged. The enrolment last year was 2674 which made a total active membership of 9807.

Extension Department

This supplies Bible teachers, evangelists and gospel singers for church and mission work, and also conducts Bible conferences, music classes and evangelistic meetings wherever called for.

Moody Bible Institute Monthly

This is a periodical devoted to Bible knowledge and interpretation; news and methods of world-wide Christian work; editorial comment on current events and conditions; inspirational verse and selected miscellany. It is catholic in spirit and outlook; evangelical and evangelistic. Issued monthly, $2.00 a year, to any address. Rev. James M. Gray, D.D., editor.

FOREWORD

The ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK for the Reformed Church in the United States is our annual publication in which we aim to give in brief and helpful form an account of the most significant activities and events in our denominational life during the year. This volume, which is annually welcomed in more homes of the Reformed Church than any other of our regular denominational publications, has striven for many years to provide an accurate roster of the ministers, Boards, institutions and agencies of our Church, as well as to note the outstanding happenings of the year, and such statistical information as may be of most value to our pastors and people. In recent years, with little increase in price, this publication has been growing in size, in the variety of its contents, and in the number of its illustrations, and it is gratifying to record the increasing interest shown by thousands in its appearance. It is a heartening fact that so many recognize the value of placing it in every family in their congregation. The ALMANAC contains the information which should be available to every member of the Reformed Church, and we repeat that the importance of such Christian literature in the homes of our people can scarcely be over-emphasized. What a blessing it would be if there were found in every home copies of the Bible, the Hymnal, the Catechism, the weekly Church paper, books of prayer and devotion, the ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK, the Outlook of Missions, and other publications which will help every member of our beloved Zion to become better acquainted with the work of Christ's Kingdom. How can we expect our children to grow up with a genuine interest in spiritual things, if we do not provide these means of blessing for our homes?

The year 1925 marked the beginning of the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the organization of our Church in this country. In the meetings of Classes and District Synods this celebration was emphasized, and it is purposed that the culmination shall be reached during the Triennial Meeting of our General Synod, which takes place in the historic First Reformed Church of Philadelphia, in May, 1926. During September the Theological Seminary of our Church at Lancaster, Pa., celebrated its 100th anniversary with a notable program, rededicating the beautiful Santee Hall, which is now a prayer chapel of which the entire denomination may be proud. June 30, 1925, also marked the completion of the five-year period of the Forward Movement campaign. In spite of the fact that only about one half of the amount subscribed was actually paid in during this period, it is generally agreed that the Forward Movement marked the largest achievement in the history of our denomination. Many congregations, moreover, propose to continue their payments until the debt is fully discharged, as they rightly consider an unpaid obligation resting upon the congregation to be a serious spiritual handicap. It is safe to say that those who have met this challenge do not consider themselves impoverished by their generosity, and hundreds of our congregations have had a new revelation of their ability to give liberally for the causes of the Church. In spite of the gifts for the Forward Movement, the record on the payment of apportionment has constantly improved, and during 1925 the payments reported by the various Classes were larger than ever. We wish it were possible to report consistent improvement in the matter of Church attendance. There are some sections in which there seems to be progress, but many pastors appear to be frankly discouraged, especially in the matter of maintaining a respectable attendance at the evening worship. We can again record gratitude for the spirit of peace and good-will which prevails in the Reformed Church, and for our comparative freedom from unbrotherly and schismatic controversy, whether on disputed theological problems or on matters of practical Church work.

The Schaff Building, our headquarters, continues to increase in value and to demonstrate its practical usefulness for our denominational activities. But it is a matter of profound sorrow that the Secretary of the Publication and Sunday School Board, who was so largely responsible for its erection, was stricken down by serious illness in June, 1925. The building program in our institutions of learning is being carried on with redoubled energy, and in a number of cases financial campaigns of great urgency have been instituted. Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C., reopened its doors in September, 1925, with an encouraging enrollment of students. One of the most hopeful signs of the times is to be found in the increasing number of our pastors and young people who are attending various summer schools and equipping themselves for larger service. The Daily Vacation Bible Schools in many congregations continue to report a useful ministry, with widespread appreciation on the part of local constituencies.

Death has again taken a serious toll in the ranks of our ministry, and the challenge to the boys and young men in the families of the Reformed Church must be more wisely emphasized. Pastors and parents should join in stressing the importance of the work of the ministry, with its appeal to all that is noble and heroic in the heart of man. Attention has been called to the fact that a number of Classes actually report a loss in membership during the past year, while others report a net increase which is lamentably small. Indeed, we do not show as steady an increase in the number of confirmations in proportion to our membership as we enjoyed thirty or forty years ago. This is a matter which should cause fervent prayer and earnest planning. A wise statesmanship is needed to organize an evangelistic campaign which should lead to the largest catechetical classes and the greatest ingathering in the history of our Church at the next Easter season. This would, after all, be the best way to celebrate the 200th year of our activity in America.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT

The year 1925 was of special significance with reference to the Forward Movement because in it the five-year period for accomplishing its various objectives came to an end. The program of the Commission for the closing year was designed to assist the congregations, as far as possible, in meeting their quotas in the Budget, especially in getting fully paid the pledges already in hand. The appeal for payment in full was heralded to the membership in every congregation, by means of posters, bulletins, circulars, pastoral letters and personal messages from the pulpits by members of the Secretarial Staff and other representatives of the Movement. Reports of receipts together with news items were published according to previous custom, in all the Church papers from week to week. The efforts of the Staff were loyally seconded by many pastors and congregations throughout the Church, and in some instances heroic measures were taken to have all obligations met before June 30, the date when the time allotted for the Forward Movement would expire.

Following June 30 the receipts were large, and on August 1 the Treasurer reported for the entire period as follows:

In order to provide aid to congregations in their efforts to secure payments and to give further opportunity to subscribers who through inadvertence or inability had not yet met their obligations, the Commission decided to keep the Treasurer's Office active until the meeting of the General Synod in May, 1926. The Secretarial Staff will continue in service without compensation except in the case of the Assistant General Secretary and the book-keeper, and an effort will be made to bring into the Treasury all balances still due on Forward Movement pledges.

Having come to the end of the period fixed by the General Synod, the conviction grows that the Forward Movement is but the beginning of a movement forward. The same call that came to our Church five years ago comes to us today, only with increased urgency. Many evil conditions in the world which were seen then as grave possibilities have since been sensed as grim realities. In these five years the spiritual helplessness of mankind has been manifested on all sides. The ministry of the Church of Jesus Christ as the paramount need of the human heart is the supreme mandate of the hour.

By the grace of God, and prompted by His blessed Spirit, all are admonished to continue in prayer and in good works, supporting in ever increasing measure the vital interests of the Kingdom which the Church has so signally advanced through the Forward Movement,

THE UNITED MISSIONARY AND STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

A Year of Great Progress

The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee has been specially charged by the General Synod with the responsibility of helping to create conditions in the Church whereby all of the regular missionary and benevolent work may be maintained at a high standard. The salaries of the missionaries at home and abroad, the relief of ministers and their dependents, and the conduct of certain departments of religious education are made possible through the regular Budgets of the Boards as Apportioned to the Classes and congregations. The Classical Year that ended with the meetings of the Classes in the spring of 1925 showed more remarkable progress along several lines than any previous year of our denominational history. The facts that our General Synod meets only once in three years, and that following the close of the World War there was a decided fall in the purchasing power of the dollar, made necessary what seemed to be a sudden and a very large increase in the Budgets of General Synod's Boards. Accordingly, when the General Synod met at Hickory, N. C., in May 1923, the Church was embarrassed and dismayed. In September of that year when the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees came together in conference they recognized anew that the work of the Boards is the work of the Church, and that to maintain the work it was necessary to secure the amounts of the Budgets of the Boards. Classis after Classis met in special session, adopted its share, or its Apportionment, of the several Budgets, and in turn apportioned to each congregation its share. The Classes, however, were not ready to undertake the raising of these Budgets during the first Classical Year owing to the fact that the Church was straining every effort to pay the Forward Movement pledges in full. The result was that each of the Mission Boards added $65,000 to its indebtedness during that Classical Year and the other Boards received far less money than was really needed to carry on their work.

The Canvass and Its Results

The Annual Every Member Canvass is the most important feature of the financial program of a congregation. A very large majority of all our congregations have made the Every Member Canvass at least once, but many congregations had been omitting the Canvass one year or the next, and had been making it without sufficient preparation. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee has prepared excellent helps for canvassers, and has been making clear to our people why the Budgets are urgently needed. A larger number of thoroughly-prepared-for canvasses were made last year than in any previous year. As is always the case, the results of the canvasses surprised pastors and consistories and not only brought in large amounts of money but helped increase church attendance and brought spiritual results as well. Although many of the canvasses were not made until a few months before the close of the Classical Year that ended May 31, 1925, the money on the Apportionments came in in a steady stream. The Boards of Home Missions and Foreign Missions received on their Apportionments during the year an increase from $430,147.31 to $580,412.17, or 35 per cent. This most encouraging advance was the largest in our history. Hundreds of canvasses should be made during the fall and winter of 1925. These, with those that were made last spring, should make possible an even larger additional increase during the coming year so that the Apportionments of all of General Synod's Boards will be paid in full.

The Classes and Their Apportionments

Two years ago some of the Classes felt that it was unwise to ask their congregations to try to raise their full Apportionments. Some of these Classes at their annual meetings in 1925 made the adventure of faith and left their congregations know the amounts that were expected of them if they were to pay their full shares of the Budgets. There are still a few Classes, however, which have not passed on the full amounts to their congregations. These Classes say that they have not "accepted" the full Apportionments, which simply means that they are not making known the amounts to the congregations, and requesting them to pay them. The Budgets of the Boards are not arbitrary amounts, but statements of what is being expended to maintain the work, and the Apportionment of a Classis or congregation is not an arbitrary amount, but the sum that it is asked to contribute as its share of the Budgets.

Christian Stewardship

Stewardship was a word little known or understood in the Reformed Church ten years ago. The presentation of Stewardship was not favorably received in the early years of the work of our Committee, but the subject in all its aspects seems to have gradually taken deep root in the minds and hearts of our people and there is now very great interest in it. Five years ago the Secretary of the United Missionary and Stewardship Committee became also the Secretary of the Department of Stewardship of our Forward Movement. Now that the Forward Movement promotional work has come to an end the promotion of Christian Stewardship in all its phases reverts to this Committee as the central Stewardship agency of the denomination. The Stewardship Essay Contest conducted each year is growing in favor. More than a thousand packages of literature were sent out last spring upon request of pastors, Sunday School superintendents and young people for the help of those who wrote essays. Last year there were three age groups and some of the essays written by the younger children show that even young people can fully appreciate the principles of Christian Stewardship and apply them in their lives. The Interdenominational Stewardship Conferences held at Youngstown, Indianapolis and Louisville were successful beyond expectations. The United Stewardship Council, which represents all the larger denominations and in which our Reformed Church participates, will hold in January and February of 1926 a series of twenty conferences in important cities from coast to coast.

The Classical Committees

The Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees are in every respect the most important links in our work. There are earnest and active Missionary and Stewardship Committees in almost every Classis, the only exceptions being that some of the German Classes have not yet seen fit to appoint such committees. The work done by some of these Classical Committees in reaching and helping their congregations deserves the heartiest commendation of the whole Church. Their work is done without remuneration, and is prompted solely by the desire to help build up the Kingdom of our Lord. The Annual Conference of Chairmen of the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees, held at Harrisburg in September of each year, gives an opportunity for exchange of successful plans and for conference regarding the missionary and stewardship work as a whole. One of the most important things to be done by these Classical Committees during the coming year is to devise a plan for Apportioning the Budgets to the Classes and the congregations which plan will meet with the full approval of all concerned so that there can be joy in carrying it through to successful completion.

HOME MISSIONS

During this current year the Reformed Church will celebrate the One Hundredth Anniversary of organized Home Mission effort. On September 28, 1826, in Frederick, Maryland, was organized "The American Missionary Society of the German Reformed Church." Any person, on payment of one dollar or more, was entitled to membership in this Society. Out of this body there was annually elected a Board of Missions, consisting of twenty-four members, who carried forward practically all of the work. This arrangement, however, did not prevail for any length of time, for in 1832 the Synod elected a Board of eighteen members which took the place of the Society originally constituted. In 1835 this Board reported receipts from the Church at large of $97.20½. In 1841 it reported three Missionaries, and receipts of $306. One hundred years have passed, and see what God has wrought! The three Missionaries now have become three hundred, and the $306 have been multiplied by one thousand during the last year.

The past year signalized the complete unification of our Home Mission work. This is an achievement of far-reaching significance and one which had been desired for many years. The work in the so-called German Synods was carried forward by a Board of Missions of their own. This arrangement in more or less modified form prevailed until January, 1925, when all of the work represented by that Board was merged with the General Synod's Board of Home Missions, and continues to function as a new Department, called the Department of the Northwest. The Superintendent of this new Department is Dr. Theodore P. Bolliger, who was the General Secretary of the old Tri-Synodic Board. This united status of the work of the Reformed Church in its Home Missionary activities affords great opportunities to the whole denomination, inasmuch as it lays open the great Northwest which is a fertile field of Home Mission endeavor. It brings a corresponding responsibility to the Church. In this Department are included not only the Missions in the Northwestern States of our country, but also the string of Missions in the Dominion of Canada, and the Indian Mission at Black River Falls, Wisconsin, and the Indian School at Neillsville, Wisconsin. In Canada the Reformed Church has 15 congregations, of which 14 receive support from the Board of Home Missions. These congregations have a membership of 1022, with a Sunday-school enrollment of approximately 700. The work is comparatively new and is not without its difficulties. It is purely of a Missionary character but is bound to develop in coming years. Three Thousand Dollars will erect a suitable church in some of those rural communities. The Board has commissioned a traveling missionary to go into British Columbia and make a study of conditions there with a view of organizing Mission Churches in that western Province in Canada.

In its Immigrant Department the Board of Home Missions ministers to the foreign-speaking people in our midst. In the Reformed Church the Gospel is preached in the following languages: English, German, Hungarian, Bohemian, Jewish, Japanese, Indian. We maintain our Harbor Mission work in New York City where the Missionary looks after Immigrants upon their arrival in and departure from America. Our principal Immigrant work is among the Hungarians. There are 55 Reformed Hungarian congregations in this country, of which 50 are Missions under our Board. There are two Bohemian congregations: one in Chicago, Illinois, and the other at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. There are two Japanese Missions: one in San Francisco, California and the other in Los Angeles, California. There are two Missions among the Jews: one in Philadelphia, Pa., and the other in Brooklyn, N. Y. The Board supports Daily Vacation Bible Schools in most of these foreign-speaking churches and maintains Hungarian Professors in the institutions at Lancaster, Pa., and in connection with Central Theological Seminary at Dayton, Ohio.

In its Church-building Department the Board assists the Missions in securing adequate equipment. The Forward Movement made it possible to render assistance to many Mission Churches but this Movement has terminated and the Board must rely upon other sources of income with which to supply the needs of its Missions. The Church-building Funds, which now number 1,000, have been of great help in providing suitable buildings for the Missions. The Board asks for gifts, legacies, annuities from individuals, congregations and other organizations in order that it may give the aid to its Missions in the erection of suitable buildings. In making your will kindly remember the Board of Home Missions. If you have money to invest, the Board will be glad to pay you the legal rate of interest during your life time.

The work of Evangelism, Social Service and of the rural church is also assigned to the supervision and support of the Board of Home Missions. General Synod had made no provision for this additional work. The Board had to finance it out of its meager income. This has entailed considerable hardship. These phases of work need to be promoted. They pertain to the evangelization of the people and the Christianization of the life of America, which is a stupendous task.

In connection with the Board of Foreign Missions, a Missionary Education Department is being maintained which seeks to promote the spirit of Missions in the local congregations and through Summer Conferences and by stereopticon lectures and Mission Study books to awaken a more intelligent interest in the Home Mission cause.

The Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod is assisting the Board in its support of Deaconesses, social workers and along other lines of Home Mission effort.

The Outlook of Missions is the periodical published jointly by the Board of Home Missions, the Board of Foreign Missions, and the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod, and presents the whole field of Missionary effort at home and abroad.

AN EVENING PRAYER

The following is given as a family prayer which Robert Louis Stevenson used to offer at the close of day: "Go with each of us to rest; if any wake, temper to them the dark hours of watching; and when the day returns to us, our Sun and Comforter, call us with morning faces and with morning hearts, eager to labor, eager to be happy, if happiness shall be our portion; and if the day be marked to sorrow, strong to endure it."

FOREIGN MISSIONS

The foreign missionary should be a super-Christian. He embodies in his life what was noblest and best in the Savior who went about doing good on the earth.

The work of Foreign Missions is the fruit of faith and the flower of love. It is the expulsive power of the Christian life in the soul. For that reason the finest history of a denomination is its missionary record.

The giving of life is always a true test of consecration to God.

There was a time when Japan, China, India and Africa did not bulk very large in the affairs of the world. The Continent of Asia to many people was a great silence. To-day the situation is changing. Men are beginning to realize that the people in the Orient are potent factors in the securing of a permanent peace. It is the whole world that must be won for Christ, and herein lies the chief reason for the work of Foreign Missions.

The Church of Christ to-day faces her greatest opportunity. Her equipment surpasses that of any previous age. The experience and progress of past centuries imposes a trust and a responsibility that Christians dare not shirk or shift at the peril of their own souls. There must be a master motive and ruling passion in the minds and hearts of all Christians—telling the good news of salvation through Christ unto the ends of the earth.

Foreign Mission Day occurs, this year, on February fourteenth. It is the time when special attention should be given our work in Japan, China and Mesopotamia, and liberal offerings for its support.

There is no more useful or permanent object for a memorial to a loved one than the erection of a chapel on the foreign field. In this way members of the Church can let their light shine into the remotest places of the earth.

In the selection of foreign missionaries, the pastors and members can be of great help to the Board of Foreign Missions. Only the choicest of the flock should be sent.

The following sailed last summer to fill vacancies and pressing needs in our China Mission: Rev. Theophilus F. H. Hilgeman, son of Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Hilgeman of Bay City, Michigan; Rev. and Mrs. Chester B. Alspach of Canal Winchester, Ohio; Miss Edna F. Detweiler of Chalfont, Pa.; Miss Ruth A. Henneberger, of Greencastle, Pa. Mr. A. Bertram Davis, of the International Y. M. C. A. in China, has joined our Mission beginning with September, 1925. Miss Elizabeth Suess, of Madison, Wis., will teach in Miyagi College, and Mr. Francis W. Weida, of Gambier, Ohio, will teach English in North Japan College. Rev. E. Warner Lentz, Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Lentz, of Bangor, Pa., is the second missionary of our Church to go to Mesopotamia as a member of the United Mission. Mr. and Mrs. Lentz sailed from New York for Baghdad on August 27, 1925.

So far as the Forward Movement has been affecting the work of the Board of Foreign Missions, the results almost beggar description. No one can transfer his mental vision to Japan and China without wondering how such great and blessed changes could have been wrought in so short a period of time. But there are the proofs: additional workers, many new chapels, several school buildings and missionary residences.

TELLING THE GOOD NEWS IN CHINA

After the dedication of the new chapel at Yanglowsze, a station in our Yochow field in China, the boys' drum corps of the Mission School escorted the visitors from America to the railway station.

The Cabinet of the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod have conceived the happy idea of raising the whole amount for the new hospital at Yochow City, China, and their plan is to ask the men of the Church to contribute the additional $25,000 necessary for the Men's Wing. No finer ambition has ever taken hold of the hearts of our devoted women. It is just like them. Who will not lend a hand? There is no man in our Church, when a woman asks him for a contribution of a dollar or more, who will not promptly respond. This special effort is not to interfere with any of the other laudable appeals before the Church.

The Main College Building of North Japan College was begun on July 6, 1925. This long-awaited structure has been made possible by the liberal gifts of a small group of individual members of the Church who have taken to their hearts the urgent needs of North Japan College. The building is being constructed of reinforced concrete with a facing of grey stone. Every effort is being put forth to insure it against damage from fire and earthquake.

The new chapel at Akita, Japan, was dedicated May 23-24, 1925. The chief addresses were delivered to a well filled church by Rev. K. Tsuchida, a former pastor, Missionary Carl. D. Kriete, and Dr. David B.

I shall try to send our graduates to your College Department.” These words were uttered recently by the veteran principal of the Methodist Girls’ School in Hakodate, Japan, after a thorough inspection of Miyagi College, Sendai.

During his first year in Baghdad, besides studying the language, Dr. Calvin K. Staudt has given time to teaching in the Protestant School which had an enrollment during the past year of 180 pupils. In this number there were included 21 Moslems, 33 Jews, 34

Protestants, and the rest were Chaldeans (Catholics), Gregorians, Nestorians, Greek Orthodox, Armenian Catholics, Syrians and Bahaists. Mrs. Staudt conducted a school for girls, enrolling 40 pupils representing the several religions of Mesopotamia.

The progress made in our Japan Mission during the first quarter of the Twentieth Century gives great encouragement to all supporters of our work. In 1900 we had 22 missionaries in Japan; in 1925, 54; an increase of 145 per cent. In 1900 we had 78 native workers; in 1925, 207; an increase of 162 per cent. 25 years ago we had 61 churches and preaching places; to-day we have 84; an increase of 38 per cent. Communicants increased from 2,003 to 4,571; an increase of 128 per cent. Sunday Schools more than doubled in number and the teachers and pupils increased from 1,223 to 7,517; a gain of 514 per cent. Contributions of the native Christians to church work amounted to $2,350 in 1900; in 1925 they had risen to $17,386; a gain of 640 per cent. The enrollment of North Japan College grew from 142 to 815; 474 per cent gain. Miyagi College grew from 86 to 444; 416 per cent gain. The valuation of the property increased from $25,000 to $1,250,000; an increase of 4,900 per cent.

Gifts are welcome from individuals, Sunday Schools and Churches toward the support of Native Teachers, Evangelists and Bible Women in Japan and China. The salaries range from $100 to $800 per year. One of the best ways to help is by giving Chapel Funds of $500 and $1,000.

How much are you praying for our workers on the frontiers of the world?

PUBLICATION AND SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

MILE STONES MARKING PROGRESS IN 1925 IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Publication and Sunday School Board had a busy and successful year's work. Among the outstanding achievements are the following forms of service rendered:

CHURCH SCHOOL BUILDINGS. Many individual sketches for new Church School buildings have been submitted to Churches based on carefully wrought out standards, expressing the judgment of many specialists, rather than upon the individual opinion of one man.

EDUCATIONAL STANDARDS. "The Ten Point Minimum Standard of Efficiency" has been successfully reached by a great many of our schools. Therefore, the Board is now experimenting with a tentative 1,000-point standard prepared by the Committee on Education of the International Council of Religious Education. This standard by its more detailed and gradated measurements enables a school more adequately to check up not only on the machinery side of the school, but also on the effectiveness of worship, instruction and service with the view of promoting the religious life of the pupil.

CHILDREN'S WEEK. This has been observed by hundreds of schools. It is a great rallying point for our Children's Division Superintendent. She thus comes into personal touch with an ever increasing number of Children's Division leaders, helping them through literature, institutes, at Summer Schools and by means of personal correspondence. A Children's Division consciousness is rapidly developing throughout the Church as a result of these efforts.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT. The major task of this department, during the last year, has been experimentation in the correlation of the young people's work of various local Church organizations. After a careful study, plans for various types of correlation were suggested to a number of local Churches and the results of the experimentation have been gratifying. The department has made no attempt to outline a "cut-and-dried" organization scheme, but rather to survey the local situation and make suggestions, based upon fundamental principles in young people's work.

Upon completion of a general survey made in June a comprehensive program for all the young people of the local Church was prepared. This was available in October, and included a new series of Sunday School lessons as well as program material for the Young People's Society and other organizations.

Correspondence regarding all phases of young people's work grows continually. The new leaflets for the Organized Class, Organized Young People's Division and Young People's Society, and new lists of dramatic material are in constant demand. The pageants, originally prepared for Young People's Day observance, are used extensively, not only by our own people, to whom they are offered without charge, but also by members of other denominations—who pay for them!

Following the season of summer school and camp teaching in 1924, the Secretary spent six months in graduate study at Northwestern University, specializing in problems related to the religious education of adolescents. During the past summer she made a field tour of the far West, beginning with the International Christian Endeavor Convention in Portland, Oregon, early in July and ending at the International Girls' Camp at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, of which she was dean, in the latter part of August. Reformed Church delegates to Portland were especially interested in the Christian Endeavor Pageant, "Christ Exalted," which has been written by Miss Miller.

WEEK-DAY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION during the summer and winter months, especially the former, is growing by leaps and bounds. That this work is being very carefully done in our Church is vouched for by the fact that back of it is a select group of leaders, working as a Council of Week-day Religious Education. At every point theory is being tested out by actual practice through experimentation centers in local Churches.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING. 3,830 students enrolled in Teacher Training classes in the local Church last year. Twenty institutes, attended by hundreds of young people, were held. Four Summer Schools of Religious Education were conducted this summer. Theological Seminaries were visited with the view of presenting the work of the Board to the students. High standards clearly defined and attainable have been formulated.

EDUCATIONAL LITERATURE. Important text books were published during the year. Our Sunday School papers have enjoyed an encouraging increase in circulation. Teacher and Pupil Lesson helps are being steadily improved. Many leaflets on Church school problems were issued. Many millions of pages of educational material were circulated in this way.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPPLIES are steadily being improved to meet the growing needs of our schools.

The Publication Department furnishes Church and Sunday School supplies published or manufactured anywhere, and is rendering an important service in answering constant inquiries and giving information.

REAL ESTATE DEPARTMENT: The Real Estate Department is handled separately but the Schaff Building furnishes splendid accommodations for all the Boards and agencies of the Reformed Church, and thereby saves to the Church more than $25,000 annually in rental charges, but the building carries a large mortgage and its net earnings must be applied annually to the reduction of the indebtedness. Fully $30,000 was paid on the principal of the mortgage in July.

DEMAND FOR WORKERS. Ohio Synod is calling for a full-time director of religious education. This man should be appointed as soon as possible. This will make nine persons, all but two of whom will be giving full time to this important work.

MISSIONARY WORK. Many free grants of literature were given to Mission Schools and weak schools. A large sum of money was spent on Hungarian literature and missionary work.

HIGHER EDUCATIONAL LEVELS. Gradually the Church is being brought to a consciousness of the indispensable place religious education occupies in the unfolding of character and the development of Christian conduct. Stress on doing the will of God rather than merely knowing what that will is, is beginning to tell in the correspondence received from the Church, in the topics found on Sunday School Convention programs, and in courses demanded at Summer Schools of Religion.

APPRECIATION OF THE CHURCH. This is manifested not only by the encouraging comments received on the work, but especially by the increased giving.

The gratitude of the Publication and Sunday School Board is expressed to the Church for this increased confidence and support of this steadily enlarging task. Let us take to heart the prophetic words recently uttered by Dr. Theodore F. Herman, "Christian Education in all its phases, is the outstanding problem of the Church today, a problem whose adequate solution will tax the heart and mind and purse of our people as no other cause has done in the past."

SUMMER SCHOOLS OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Four Summer Schools for the training of young people were conducted last summer, viz., Cedar Crest, Camp Harmony, Bucknell and Dayton Summer School. The general activities of these Schools consist of worship, study, recreation and wholesome fellowship. The forenoon is devoted to classroom work and study; the afternoon to rest, fellowship and recreation. The evening is devoted to worship and special programs of an intellectual and social character. There are definite periods for these major activities which are observed by all the students.

BUCKNELL SUMMER SCHOOL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, 1925

Impressions made at these ten-day Schools aid directly in building up the spiritual life in the local Church. The desire for Christian service which is cultivated as well as the training offered in religious leadership usually bear rich fruitage when these young people return to their respective Churches. A letter from a leader in a prominent Church contains this testimony which is only one among many: "All the girls from here are great boosters for the Camp (Camp Harmony) another year. They have impressed the other girls so much that a number of the girls are planning to go with them next year. I would like to have had you hear their testimonies as they each gave their report at the Christian Endeavor meeting. They very much surprised me with the things that were outstanding in the Camp activities. It was not so much the pleasures but the things that will lead to the larger activities of the Church; and I had an even more agreeable surprise when I asked the girls to teach in my department of the Sunday School and they did it without any hesitation, which they never did before." This statement with regard to the training of these particular young people applies with equal force to all the delegates that attend these ten-day Summer Schools where the courses of study as well as the daily activities are carefully planned to develop the spiritual life in such a way as to produce real capacity for leadership in the local Church along the lines demanded by our young people to-day.

At no time in the history of the Church was there as great a demand for trained lay-leadership as to-day. The Church is steadily becoming a centre for all forms of social and intellectual activity as well as for the development of the distinctly religious life. It is here, consequently, where a great demand must be supplied. The Church must realize the need for adjusting herself to present day conditions and young people in turn must be trained to promote activities which minister to the needs of their own group. This is where the Summer Schools aid in promoting the work of the local Church, particularly if the need for trained leadership is keenly felt. These Summer Training Schools aim to point out the places of service for young people and at the same time prepare these same potential leaders to meet the challenge of the home Church.

THE FIRST GRADUATES OF OUR SUMMER SCHOOLS OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We are glad to report here an event of very signal importance to the Reformed Church. The following persons, whose pictures are shown in the accompanying cut, have the honor of being the first graduates of our Summer Schools of Religious Education: Mrs. George Schmeck, Virgie Staudt, Ruth Ann Miller, Arlene Kresge, Evelyn Lesser and Dorothy Greenwald. They were graduated at the Cedar Crest Summer School of Religious Education on June 26th, 1925, after completing the Standard Teacher Training Course.

The account of the graduation exercises was given in the Church papers at the time. Space forbids a repetition of what was said at that time. Suffice it to state again the significance of the event. The Church by this act acknowledges the necessity of special training of a high grade for its future leaders. This act, with one stroke, puts the Church School on a much higher level of efficiency, ideals and practice. It means the dawning of a new day in religious education in the Reformed Church.

CHURCH VACATION SCHOOLS

A number of very interesting and highly profitable Vacation Schools are being conducted throughout our denomination. One of the most fruitful undertakings along this line was an experiment at St. Peter's Reformed Church, Lancaster, Pa., with a Conduct Curriculum prepared by Prof. Paul M. Limbert and Dr. Charles Peters. The School was in operation for four weeks. The work was supervised by Prof. Limbert and Dr. Peters. The teachers and assistants were given sufficient preparation to enter upon this experiment so that very helpful data for the promotion of Church Vacation School work was made available.

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT D. V. B. S., GRACE CHURCH, BUFFALO, N. Y.

Instead of pursuing a curriculum for the mere impartation of knowledge the leaders in the various departments planned various programs for the development of character traits through lesson discussions, stories, group work, games, excursions and worship services. Not only were the children and teachers intensely interested in a program of this kind but decided transformations took place in the lives of boys and girls. The executive committee of the Commission on Weekday Religious Education took action to the effect that these conduct programs be made available for other congregations of the Reformed Church. A second season of very successful Vacation

School work was conducted in this same Church under the supervision of Rev. Charles Spotts when the same style of lesson material was used.

A number of very excellent reports have been received concerning the results of these Vacation Schools. The following statement with regard to this progressive work can be duplicated many many times by a host of teachers and leaders in our Church: "I am glad to report to you the results of our efforts to conduct a Vacation Church School on the project method. It was the finest School we had as far as real results are concerned. I am convinced there is no method that as vitally molds the child as giving a child a voice and a share in the responsibility of conducting a school. Of their own accord they decided to give the finest piece of handwork to the children of the hospitals because they could not attend a school. Then they insisted on a committee of their own to deliver the toy houses and they got a great deal of real Christian training out of the matter. We imposed no adult program but built it upon the experiences of the children. Among other problems we had under consideration were war and mobilization day with some very definite action on these questions in the school. The school conducted its own worship period and each child selected its own handwork, giving a reason for the choice."

With regard to the importance of this work we desire to add that the Vacation School is the most effective way for the development of elementary children that has yet been discovered. We have received scores of testimonies from our leading ministers and laymen to the effect that these Daily Vacation Summer Schools have given them the best results that they have experienced in all their work. The Church Vacation School affords an excellent opportunity for the supervised activities which constitute the basic factors in the development of religious and social habits. Here, for instance, sufficient time is given to worship in a real and vital way which can best be realized by "growth or development in the way of life revealed to us through Jesus of Nazareth." The children also develop habits of cooperation, helpfulness, kindness and generosity by playing, studying and working together under proper supervision.

WEEKDAY RELIGIOUS SCHOOLS

All religious educators agree that no Church can have an adequate program of religious education until the local leaders provide a Church School having Sunday sessions, Weekday sessions and Vacation School sessions. The effectiveness of the Sunday School is seriously stultified because children often come in contact with many unwholesome activities during the week. By having a thoroughgoing program of Week-day Religious training these unwholesome influences are necessarily counteracted. The real purpose of the Weekday Religious School is to conserve the work of the Sunday School, as well as of the Vacation School, by providing a constructive program of Christian character building during the weekday period of the winter months. It will mean a considerable effort on the part of the local Church to formulate such a comprehensive program of religious training. It is apparent, however, that every effort along these lines will be very much worthwhile.

A very illuminating experiment in Weekday Religious Education was conducted at St. Peter's Church, Lancaster, Pa., for a period of ten weeks during the fall and winter of 1924 with a one-hour per week program. It was found that a one-hour program per week made it well nigh impossible to maintain sufficient interest from week to week in work that was not vitally connected with other activities of the local Church to warrant much expenditure of money or energy. The executive committee of the Commission on Weekday Religious Education, consequently, requested that an experiment be conducted at St. Peter's Church during the coming winter with a Weekday program that is integrally related to the Sunday School work.

Our recommendation is that Churches commence the work on a limited scale, if necessary. Excellent results have been realized during an eight-week period for primary and junior children. The Church Vacation School has demonstrated that a few persons can be found in every community to conduct such work.

INSTITUTES

The Church to-day is very eager to develop the lay-leadership among its members. It is for this reason that young people especially are brought together from various Churches within a community, so as to develop the social, intellectual and spiritual possibilities of these potential leaders. One of the best methods of providing a practical program along these lines is the Young People's Leadership Training Institute. It is a well attested fact that a well-planned program that meets the needs of young people interests them more than any activity that may be provided by any other agency in the community. Since young people are naturally inclined to play together, it is always important to arrange a stimulating social program in connection with these meetings. It is for this reason that a supper with songs and games is always acceptable for commencing the Institute work. In this way also the young people overcome their backwardness and enter into the discussions and devotional features of the meeting with much earnestness.

Experience leads us to say that people generally are anxious for practical assistance in solving their problems. Many of our Church members are very anxious to aid in the work of the local Church but do not know how to make their work effective. All of them desire help in realizing their highest ideals in life. Anyone who presents to such seekers for light and truth something definite will have a most appreciative audience. It should also be said that these workers are interested in exchanging ideas with one another and discussing common problems. The class periods in connection with our institute programs are designed particularly for such discussions.

Institute sessions for adults and young people were conducted during the past year in most of the Classes of Eastern, Potomac, Pittsburgh and Ohio Synods. It is hoped that a program extending over a period of three or four days can be promoted throughout our entire denomination. Such meetings for our religious workers are just as indispensable as institutes for persons engaged in secular education.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT'S FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Five years ago the Young People's Department was in its infancy. Today in the store-room printed helps for every phase of young people's work are ready for mailing; the office files record increasingly effective local organizations; the Secretary's memory holds hundreds of helpful enterprises begun or stimulated through field visits to local Churches, conferences, camps and conventions. The Young People's Secretary has, by this time, visited almost every section of the wide-spread denomination and counts the hardships of travel and the acquisition of new gray hairs as unimportant beside the happy friendships which have been formed.

A statistical report is powerless to show the developing realization of the Church's responsibility for her young people and the increasing efficiency with which that responsibility has been faced. The Boards of the

STANDARD TEACHER TRAINING CLASS, CHRIST CHURCH, LATROBE, PA. MISS SARA BENNETT, TEACHER;
REV. RALPH E. HARTMAN, PASTOR

Church have shown a splendid spirit of cooperation in working with the Young People's Department to avoid duplication of approach to the young people of the local Church and to secure the emphasis of united effort in missionary and stewardship projects. Interdenominational cooperation has placed additional field workers at our service for extension work. Local Churches, increasingly, have come to think in terms of a correlated program which considers the needs of all the young people of the local Church and secures harmonious working relationships between Sunday School classes, Young People's Societies, Girls Missionary Guilds and special clubs. Hundreds of young people have been inspired and trained in Winter Institutes, Summer Conferences and Training Schools of Religious Education. The formation of Classical Young People's organizations has been helpful in giving the young people themselves an opportunity to serve and to train others for service.

Yet the statistical reports are not without interest. During the five years there have been organized: 47 Junior Societies; 7 Intermediate Societies; 139 Young People's Societies; 15 Classical Leagues or Divisions; 29 Young People's Divisions of the local Church; 196 Organized Classes.

Contributions to the Young People's Department, made in response to General Synod's suggestion that the Young People's Day offering be given toward the support of the Department, have amounted to $2,347.99 with a decidedly encouraging increase during the last year. Many Churches, however, have not yet made use of their opportunity to help extend the work of the Young People's Department.

Publications during the five years have included five special services for Young People's Day, five Young People's Numbers of each of our three Church papers, two standard programs for the Young People's Society, organization leaflets for societies and organized classes, a special missionary methods leaflet, lists of religious dramatic material, numerous pageants for children and young people, and a regular weekly page, "Our Young People's Society," in The Way. There have been numerous magazine articles, two books—"Joy from Japan" and "Chinese Ginger"—and the pageant, "Christ Exalted," first presented at the International Christian Endeavor Convention at Portland—from the pen of the Secretary.

Correspondence with local leaders has grown amazingly. The Secretary's field work has included one or two seasons at each of the Summer Missionary Conferences, classes at Cedar Crest and Bucknell Training Schools, numerous winter institutes, addresses at hundreds of local Churches and participation in state and international Christian Endeavor Conventions and in International Council Summer Camps. The summer of 1925 was especially interesting, as, in connection with attendance upon the Christian Endeavor Convention at Portland, Oregon, it offered opportunity for a profitable field tour of Oregon and California.

The Secretary has been re-elected for the third term to the Executive Committee of the Professional Young People's Work Section of the International Council and is a member of the Interdenominational Young People's Commission and the Board of Trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor. This is mentioned because increasingly our work is being made effective through cooperation with other members of interdenominational agencies.

The outlook for the future of the Young People's Work in the Reformed Church is promising. More and more attention is being given to the study of young people's actual needs and ways of solving them.

DO WE NEED PAID EDUCATIONAL LEADERS IN THE LOCAL CHURCH?

We hear much talk these days about a director of religious education associated with the pastor and assigned to take charge of the educational work of the Church other than the preaching. Likewise a demand for paid Daily Vacation Bible School and Week Day School teachers is being heard far and wide.

Do we need such persons or not? Some Churches say yes, appoint them and pay the bills, others say we would like to employ such a person or persons, but we do not have the money. The Roman Catholic Church has solved this problem and the Protestant Church must learn how. Religion in spite of all the criticism one hears about "increased apportionments" is still the cheapest thing we have. The best argument of how easy it is to raise our benevolent giving is to have your automobile strike a broken bottle and see how quickly the money is produced to make the damage good. This enlarged giving will not be easy to learn, but it is one of our chief duties. If religious education needs to be done better sooner or later the Church must pay for such service by people especially trained for the purpose.

But there is still a large proportion of the Church membership to whom such terms as "directors of religious education" and "paid teachers" seem ridiculous and foolish. They see no need of such effort. "We got along in the past without them, why not now?" Such Churches and schools in a day of such educational upheaval and reform are to be pitied for their lack of vision of what a proper program of religious education will do by way of developing the Christian character of the children and youth. It will surprise such folk to learn that it is only recently that we got along without them. By the end of the first seventy-five years of the history of the Reformed Church in the United States one hundred (100) of the one hundred and forty (140) Churches had Church schools and many of them had paid school superintendents and teachers. It is only recently that we thought we could get along without them. But the price we are paying for our neglect and non-support should set us to thinking.

Churches might as well begin to think in terms of such specially trained leaders and make provision for their training and support. Religious education in the future will have to be done as thoroughly as public school education; even without being taxed we will do it.

IMPERATIVE! A COMMISSION ON CHURCH AND CHURCH SCHOOL ARCHITECTURE

In the past year many new Churches and Church School buildings have been erected. And now that the five year intensive period of the Forward Movement has closed, many more Churches will devote more especial attention to their local Church so that the coming years will become record breaking as far as the erection of Church buildings is concerned.

It is timely, therefore, to sound a word of caution, lest congregations make a large expenditure of money running high into the thousands of dollars only to find that their buildings will be unsuited to their needs a few years hence. This is especially true of the section of the building intended for Church School purposes.

STANDARD TEACHER TRAINING CLASS, SALEM CHURCH, LOUISVILLE, KY.
MISS AMELIA C. KRIETE, TEACHER

We are making rapid progress these days in educational work. Radical changes are taking place. The Sunday session is being extended to week days and in not many years this educational feature will be in vogue all over the land. Higher levels of Teacher Training are being attained and in every direction the Church is expanding its horizon to meet the new demands of our day in promoting the Kingdom.

The erection of buildings suitable for the work of the modern Church has developed into an expert's job, and no Church should venture upon such a movement without seeking the best advice obtainable. Apart from the financial consideration, which is a serious one, and which dare not be undertaken lightly lest there be great economic loss, it is nothing less than a spiritual crime to erect buildings such as will handicap the religious growth of children and youth.

The Publication and Sunday School Board is in a position to render the kind of assistance needed as to suggesting adequate plans for new buildings, meeting special situations and giving addresses of architects who have correct educational ideals.

Has not the time come, indeed, in which the Reformed Church, through appointment by General Synod should have a Commission on Church Architecture, with as much power as Synod may see wise to suggest for the approval of the Classes. Much foolish expenditure of money and nondescript and unfit buildings would cease. We have talked about it long enough. Now let us act.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TOO CHEAP TO BE SAFE

Below is a list of what we pay for public school education in the U. S.

Group I.	$95.64
Group II.	87.12
Group III.	73.90
Group IV.	$77.39 or $83.51 for the 195 cities
How does this compare with what your school spends on the religious education of each child?

Contrast with that what we pay for religious education in the local Church. For the general work of the Church the Publication and Sunday School Board expended, including apportionment, Forward Movement money received, and interest on invested funds such as Annuity Bonds, Children's Educational Foundation and the like, about $34,000, or not quite 10 cents per pupil. Contrast this with Goshen, Indiana's $194 per pupil annually, and the average of 1,500 cities of $83 per pupil.

But if these figures be considered non-comparable then inquire as to how much your Sunday School expended per pupil and you will find in only a few instances will the amount exceed $2 at most. Add to this interest in the capital invested in the Church building, share of salaries and the amount will seldom reach $25 per pupil.

Now compare the relative value of public school education with religious education and ask yourself if it is safe to spend so little for the supremely important task of molding character for time and eternity. And of course increase of expenditure implies greater efficiency in teaching.

The Publication and Sunday School Board is hampered in its work of leading out the Church into its larger educational task because of limited funds. The full apportionment is needed from every Church. More than that with the cessation of the Forward Movement funds, increased revenue must be furnished by the Church from now on. A wise Church statesmanship will readily show the danger of promoting religious education in a day like this on a basis that is too cheap. We may not only pay too little for a suit of clothes to make it safe, we may invest too cheaply in our spiritual vestments.

OFFICERS OF THE WORLD'S SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF

The Board of Ministerial Relief is The Ministerial Service Board of the Reformed Church, and may be thus renamed

REV. ORRIS W. HAULMAN, NEW MEMBER,
BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF

Caring for the Veteran Minister

The United States pensions its soldiers, sailors and aged employees; some states pension their old school teachers; all the big railroads and industrial organizations take good care of their sick and aged workmen; every county in almost every state has a home for its poor people; benevolent secret societies pay sick and death benefits, and sometimes provide homes for their aged members. Surely the Church should take good care of its aged and disabled ministers and its widows of ministers. The best authorities say that this is the "Foremost," "Inherent," "Supreme" claim upon the Christian Church.

What Kind of Care?

We may well ask the question what kind of care does our Reformed Church take of its aged and disabled ministers and their widows? Your Board of Ministerial Relief takes the best possible care it can of our old ministers, our sick ministers and the needy widows of our ministers. It gives them all that the Church gives it through the Apportionment and more. It has two ways of caring for our aged ministers and their widows, one is called Relief and the other Sustentation.

Care by Relief and Sustentation

Through Ministerial Relief your Board helps 48 needy aged and disabled ministers, to whom it gives $16,290, an average of $340, and 102 needy widows of ministers, to whom it gives $23,640, an average of $232. Through Ministerial Sustentation, which is sometimes called Ministerial Pensions and is only 8 years old, your Board helps 3 ministers and 10 widows of ministers. Ministerial Sustentation is still incomplete because it is young, and therefore can pay only $180 of its highest annuity of $500 at present.

Better Care

The average of $340 a year for our aged and disabled ministers and of $232 for our widows of ministers is not enough. How then can your Board of Relief give them more? By every congregation paying its Ministerial Relief Apportionment in full and giving a special offering for this most worthy cause. In Ministerial Sustentation your Board can pay the full $500 a year to our aged ministers and the full $300 a year to our widows of ministers only after our Church has raised an additional $1,328,550. This last amount may seem large, but it is not nearly so large proportionately as what some other denominations are doing or planning to do. And remember that the Church that does not care for its ministers will have no ministers to care for it.

Care for the Man Who Cares for the Church

Our ministers usually spend from 8 to 10 years in preparing for the ministry at a cost of from $4,000 to $5,000; enter the active ministry at about 27 years of age; and usually have smaller salaries and larger necessary expenses than other men. They study and read as much as a college professor; speak oftener and to more people than a lawyer; make more calls than a doctor; and work longer hours than a mechanic. All this they do to take good care of the Church people.

The Church people should therefore take good care of their ministers, when they are in the active pastorate and when they cannot serve any longer as pastors, because of old age or infirmity.

Ministerial Care is Not Charity

When the Board of Relief supports an aged minister it pays him what he had earned by services rendered, but which he did not receive while in the active pastorate. In behalf of these needy and worthy servants we appeal to you at this time. God gave the Gospel, but it was brought to our homes and hearts by devoted, self-denying preachers who have never been properly compensated by the Church.

Some ministers and laymen in our Church have looked upon the relief given by your Board to our aged ministers and widows as charity; but there could be no greater mistake. If a man whom I have never known is in need and comes to me for help and I feed or clothe him—that is charity. But if a man has served me for many years and I never paid him a just return for his labor, and he is old and poor and I have grown rich through his labor, and now provide for him in his old age, thus discharging a just obligation—that is ministerial relief.

A Call for Ministerial Care

Now the call comes to us for $1,328,550. We have more than 300,000 members to whom the appeal is made. Not a great task you say. No, not great if each one will do his part. Let us complete this during the coming year.

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Board of Christian Education has been in existence just two years. The various activities assigned to it by the General Synod cover a large field, in which, as yet, there are neither markers nor milestones. It is virgin soil, untilled, but promising rich harvests to faithful laborers.

These activities may be grouped under four subjects, viz., Life-service, Standards, Finance, Arousing Interest in Higher Education. Each of these four is of vital importance to the well-being of the Church and for the promotion of the Kingdom of God. And four commissions have been appointed for their study.

LIFE-SERVICE

This caption sums up the relation of this board to the academic youth of the Church. It includes the spiritual nurture of Reformed students in non-Reformed schools, directing our youth into our own institutions of learning recruiting for the ministry, as well as holding conferences for life-service. It is obvious that our labor in this sphere is strictly circumscribed by the co-operation of the pastors. Without their help we can do little or nothing. We need a complete list of the young people of our communion who are at school away from home, and we earnestly request every pastor to send to the secretary of this board, the Rev. O. B. Moor, 1065 40th St., Milwaukee, Wis., all the pertinent data. Wherever feasible the board will arrange conferences for life-service some time between New Year and Easter.

STANDARDS

This subject pertains to the relation of the Board of Christian Education to our higher institutions of learning—academies, colleges and seminaries. In order to ascertain the present status of Christian Education in schools supported and maintained by our Church, we sent a questionnaire to each of them. The replies received so far contain much gratifying information. They reveal that, without a single exception, our schools are Christian in purpose and spirit, and that all of them are dealing with the problem of giving more definite and adequate expression to that supreme purpose in their curricula. But they also make it manifest that we are lagging behind other Churches and are falling beneath the high standard that is ours by right of heritage. This board humbly anticipates the time when, by friendly counsel, based on study and observation, it may become the helpful servant of all our institutions of learning.

FINANCE

General Synod has granted us $2,000 per annum, to be raised by apportionment. Even during this first triennium, with its tentative endeavors, the board will need the full amount each year to carry on its work. And we beg that our people will not overlook this smallest item of their apportionment, which should be promptly sent to the treasurer of the Board of Christian Education, Prof. A. A. Diefenderfer, 725 Broad St., Bethlehem, Pa.

In view of the increased financial needs of the board, which are bound to arise with its enlarging works, we venture to suggest the manifest propriety of giving to the Board of Christian Education the special offerings of Education Day, or Confirmation Day, as well as those of the catechetical classes.

AROUSING INTEREST IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Under this heading the board is instructed to quicken the interest and participation of our people in higher education. And we believe that, for the present, the best means to that end are the proper observance of Education Day, especially prepared literature and articles in our religious journals, and timely addresses before Synods and Classes and on other suitable occasions. The board has made plans to extend its activities along these lines.

THE CENTENNIAL OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, AT LANCASTER, PA.

BY PRESIDENT GEORGE W. RICHARDS, D.D., LL.D.

In the year 1925 the Reformed Church celebrated the 200th anniversary of its foundation in this country and the 100th anniversary of the founding of its first school—the Theological Seminary, now located at Lancaster, Pa.

In 1819 the Missionary Committee, appointed by the Synod, in an Address to the Church at large, declared two institutions as "indispensable for the maintenance and growth of the Reformed Church, namely, "a theological seminary and a missionary establishment" (society). The proposal for a seminary was realized in 1824 when the Synod of Bedford voted for the establishment of such a school. The vote of the members of Synod was a tie; and the President, the Rev. Mr. Hendel of Womelsdorf, Pa., cast the deciding vote, saying: "I vote for the Seminary."

The opening of a theological school was the beginning of a new era in the life of the Church. Consider the movements or institutions which came in the wake of the Seminary. In 1826 a Home Missionary Society was organized; and in 1832 a Board of Home Missions was elected. Of what avail would a Board of Missions, Home or Foreign, be without an educated ministry and a theological seminary? In 1827, The Magazine of the German Reformed Church was published with the inscription, "Edited at the Theological Seminary." It was the forerunner of the Reformed Church Messenger. In 1826 the Synod elected a Foreign Mission Board, auxiliary to the "American Board." The representative of the Reformed Church on the latter Board was a professor of the Seminary—Dr. Nevin. From the oldest seminary and the other seminaries of our Church have come the men, who have built our missions in Japan and China and Baghdad. Without the Seminary, the Boards of the Church would have been absolutely helpless and money would have been futile.

In 1849, the Reformed Church Review first appeared, published by the Alumni; Dr. Nevin was its first editor. In 1848, Dr. Schaff, also, of the Seminary, published the first number of Der Deutsche Kirchenfreund. Numerous books and pamphlets, some of which had wide circulation and profound influence on the Christian thought and life in the United States, were written by professors of the Seminary.

The vacant congregations, and there were more than 100 of them in 1825, were gradually filled with ministers who were educated in the Seminary. The Reformed Church was now able to extend her borders beyond the Alleghenies into Ohio and the states further west, into Virginia and the Carolinas in the south. As the Churches in the near west, in the northwest, and in the south grew in numbers and ability, they founded seminaries and colleges whose primary purpose was to train men for the ministry.

In these hundred years 950 men have graduated from the Seminary. Of these 490 are now on the roll of the Reformed ministry, and many are in the ministry of other Churches. From the alumni have come 5 seminary presidents; 25 college presidents; 19 principals or headmasters of academies; 15 editors of Church papers, 15 foreign missionaries. Numerous professorships in seminaries, colleges, and academies of our Church and other Churches, have been filled by the alumni of the Seminary.

In the last 30 years the faculty has made numerous changes in the course of studies. The emphasis once given, for example, to systematic theology is now shifted to the direct study of the Bible and to new branches in the department of practical theology. At present courses are given on the history of religion, the history of missions, the social implications of the gospel, religious education, sacred music, the English Bible—no one of which was taught in the Seminary 40 years ago. This means, in time, additional lectureships and professorships, and of course larger financial resources.

In this centennial year the ministers and members of the Reformed Church should unite with the faculty in asking, what can be done to make the Seminary, not only as efficient as it was the last hundred years, but more efficient? Shall we meet the issues as well in our age as the fathers did in theirs? The answer must be found in men of leadership in whom the intellectual, moral, and spiritual qualities blend and who are guided by the spirit of the Lord. Men of leadership need the intelligent, moral and financial support of every member and minister of the Church. In this way only can the Theological Seminary, whose centennial we are celebrating, prove worthy of its heritage and be true to the ideals of the gospel and the genius of the Reformed Church.

These facts and figures bear witness to the significance of the Seminary for the life and growth of the church, at present and in the future. The educational, missionary, editorial, and pastoral work has been, and will always be, largely in the control of men taught in our seminaries. There are at present more than 1,600 congregations in the Reformed Church. These will receive guidance and instruction in all the circumstances of life from ministers trained in our seminaries. A moment's reflection will convince one of the far-reaching influence of the theological school. If one were to close these institutions it would not take long before the whole Church with all her varied activities would droop and wither.

One of the greatest, if not the greatest, problems of the Church is, how young men may be most effectually trained to minister the Word of Life to our generation. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever, but the application of the principles of the gospel to the issues of different times requires constant study and readjustment. If the Seminary is to accomplish its purpose for the Church and hold its own among the seminaries of other Churches, it must modify its curriculum from time to time, and increase its teaching force to meet the urgent requirements of the present.

THE SUMMER MISSIONARY CONFERENCES

SUMMER MISSIONARY CONFERENCE, KISKIMINETAS ACADEMY, SALTSBURG, PA., 1925

Efficiency in the Christian life is, for the most part, a matter of training. There must be created in the Church, as one of the great modern leaders of the Church has said, "a system of leadership training which will draw into the service of the Church of each generation an army of its most capable young men and women and train them for professional and voluntary service." Missionary leaders are made by missionary training. For the creation of missionary leadership, efficient and useful, the Summer Missionary Conferences are held. Eight of these Conferences were held last year during July and August at the following places: Hood College, Frederick, Md.; Bethany Park, Indianapolis, Ind.; Kiskiminetas Academy, Saltsburg, Pa.; Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C.; Heidelberg University, Tiffin, Ohio; Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa.; Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa.; Mission House, Plymouth, Wis. These Conferences were attended by about two thousand especially selected delegates, the great majority of whom were young people. Through these young people the Reformed Church this year will be richer in thought and more thoroughly prepared for world service.

The Summer Missionary Conferences for the year 1926 will be of especial interest to the Church because of the fact that the themes for study are most timely topics of consideration for our Reformed Church. The Home Mission theme is "The Rural Church." Since our Church is so predominately rural, this theme of study will be of especial interest and profit for the denomination. The Foreign Mission theme is "The Mohammedan World." With the interest of the Church so thoroughly aroused by the establishment of our new mission to the Moslem World in Mesopotamia, it is very evident that no study topic of foreign missions could be more timely for our denomination than the Moslem World. In addition to these general themes, both the Home and Foreign Mission Boards will issue in 1926 special handbooks for use at the Conferences, which will bring to the delegates the most up-to-date information concerning both our Home and Foreign Mission work. Still further, it is the purpose of the Secretary of the Department of Missionary Education, Rev. A. V. Casselman, D.D., to establish in 1926 a three years training course in missionary leadership for a selected number of advanced missionary students who have been in attendance upon the Summer Conferences during the past years. By this means it is hoped that many of our congregations will be provided with outstanding and especially qualified missionary leaders. The cooperation of pastors and congregational organizations is earnestly solicited for the selection of the finest type of young people as delegates to the Summer Missionary Conferences in 1926.

INDIFFERENCE

When Jesus came to Birmingham,
They swiftly passed Him by.
They never hurt a hair of Him;
They only let Him die.

For men had grown more tender,
And they would not give Him pain—
They only just passed down the street,

LIVENGOOD COTTAGE FOR GIRLS, ST. PAUL'S,
DEDICATED JUNE 24, 1925

The outstanding event in the life at St. Paul's during 1925 was the dedication of two new cottages. The one known as the Araminta Livengood Cottage is for girls, and will accommodate at least twenty-four. The other is the new cottage for boys, and will also accommodate twenty-four. They are now occupied by small groups of children. The opening of these cottages marks a new epoch in the history of St. Paul's. Henceforth, one hundred fifty children can be accommodated nicely in this institution, and, judging from the large number of applicants, it will not be long until these new cottages will be filled.

FT. WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME

FORT WAYNE, IND.

Rev. John F. Tapy, Supt.

The Ft. Wayne Orphan Home at Ft. Wayne, Indiana, after twelve years of leadership under the direction of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Winter, on July 1, 1925, passed under new management, under the leadership of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Tapy, of Culver, Indiana. The Home is located on an 86-acre plot of ground just outside the city limits of Ft. Wayne, with the city rapidly building in the direction of the Home. There were 64 children in the Home, July 1. Eight have come in since, so that at this writing there are 72 children being cared for by the Church in this Home. These children range from 7 months to 17 years in age. The Church is doing no finer missionary work anywhere than she is doing through her Orphans' Homes. Therefore we solicit the cooperation and support of the Church in this noble work.

THE BABY GIRL
NAZARETH

NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME

CRESCENT, N. C.

Rev. W. H. McNairy, Supt.

Our most Southern Home for orphan children celebrated its 19th anniversary last June, and its usefulness is constantly increasing. The beautiful new dormitory for girls, with its dining hall and social rooms for all the Nazareth children, is a wonderful addition to the equipment, and will make possible a great many improvements in the care of the boys and girls. We hope the increasing number of the friends of the orphans will not forget Nazareth Home in their prayers and gifts, especially since the excessive drought of the summer of 1925 makes it necessary to buy most of the provisions needed for the little ones.

The opening of these cottages will, of course, increase the maintenance expenses, and it will be necessary to ask for generous contributions during the coming Christmas Season.

Rev. S. S. Smith, Asst. Supt.

The Hoffman Family rejoices in its new Central Heating Plant, erected at a cost of $33,000. This was made possible by the faithful support of Gettysburg, Carlisle, Juniata, Mercersburg and Virginia Classes. The aid granted by the generous Christmas offerings of the Synod have helped and made it possible to receive those knocking at our doors for admittance.

We grant all credit to Almighty God Who has worked through the lives of our Christian People of the Reformed Church.

Our greatest gains have not been our financial achievements, but the greater opportunity for service. During the year we have received seventeen new children and three were in our graduating class.

The health of the Superintendent has been impaired and he spent the summer months at the Clifton Springs Sanitarium. The Board of Directors has called the Rev. S. S. Smith to be the Assistant Superintendent, who took charge during the former's absence.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION.

Mr. Charles V. Vickrey, General Secretary of Near East Relief, has sent a warm-hearted appreciation of the generous coöperation of the Churches and Sunday Schools of our denomination in the ministry of loving care and training given to the orphan boys and girls of Bible Lands. The Reformed Church through its gifts has saved the lives of thousands of these children, of whom about half are less than 12 years old.

PHOEBE DEACONESS AND OLD FOLKS' HOME

ALLENTOWN, PA.,

Rev. F. H. Moyer, Supt.

This is a home for destitute aged and infirm. The Old Folks Department has a capacity of 30 guests. Deaconesses have been trained here from time to time. Some of these have charge of the work of caring for the aged guests. Throughout its twenty years of history the authorities of the Home have pursued the policy of admitting first from among its numerous applicants such as are most in need. Other things being equal, such as are oldest, without funds of their own, no longer able to work, and without children able to care for them, have been admitted first. In recent years, for want of room, such were the only ones that could be admitted. The institution has been supported mainly by voluntary contributions. Those who are acquainted with the work of the Home have taken the Home's Annuity Bonds, have made it bequests, and have repeatedly given cash contributions.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, organized at the time of the founding of the Home, has given liberal and unfailing support to the work of maintenance. The Parent Auxiliary consists of persons from all the thirteen Allentown Reformed Churches. Eighteen other Reformed Churches beyond this city have organized Auxiliary Chapters. The membership fee in this organization is $1.00 and the annual dues are $1.00. These funds are used for maintenance. This organization has been providing also linens and other household supplies needed in the Home.

Mothers' Day was observed for the first time with an offering for the Home in 1924 by 20 Churches and Sunday Schools in the three supporting Classes. The following year nearly every parish in this district observed Mothers' Day with an offering for the Home with most gratifying results to both the parishes and to the Home. Mothers' Day offers a splendid opportunity for increasing the Auxiliary Membership. All those who have made a Mothers' Day offering of at least $1.00 for the Home were enrolled as members of the Auxiliary. This has resulted in extending the Auxiliary Membership into many additional congregations.

The crux of the problem in this work is income for maintenance. The Home should be enlarged. Many worthy applicants for admission cannot now be admitted for want of room. As the income for maintenance will increase, the work can be enlarged. As the Churches will more extensively participate in the

A GOOD WORD FOR THE MINISTRY

The Church has done much to disparage its ministry. The Christian home has done little to encourage its sons to enter the ministry. We have sinned grievously in this particular. But in spite of it all, I think I cannot be mistaken when I say that the men who are entering the ministry today are stronger, clearer-visioned and more manly men than those who were entering the ministry twenty or even ten years ago. It does me good to see the young manhood now in our pulpits. As I go to and fro in the land, and meet ministers singly and in groups, I have a heartened feeling and conviction. Our Churches have a manly, honest, earnest and consecrated ministry. And it is growing more so.—DR. WILLIAM E. BARTON.

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN WORKERS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN AND REFORMED CHURCHES

SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN WORKERS OF THE
PRESBYTERIAN AND REFORMED CHURCHES
1122-24-26 Spruce Street

Hundreds of our Church young women in High School, College, or at home, are asking, "What shall I do with my life?" This cut gives the answer. It points the way to the most soul-satisfying, God-glorifying of all careers,—upbuilding the Church, extending Christ's Kingdom.

Christ and the Church are crying aloud for women volunteers. We cannot supply the demands for Pastors' Assistants, Deaconesses, Religious Education Directors, Settlement Workers, and Missionaries at home and abroad.

Once the Roman Church, alone, gave life service to its women. Today the Reformed Church ordains them, supports them, and uses them in its largest Churches, in its great cities, and in its missions.

In this school, for eighteen years, the Reformed Church has been training her own daughters for her own work, under her own teachers, the very best this city affords. Tuition, board, laundry, etc., $400; scholarships available; no one turned away for lack of money; High School and College graduates accepted; recommended by the last General Synod, both for students and new endowment. Where will your dollars earn such large dividends for God, as when invested in a young life which is going to give forty or fifty years to upbuilding the Church?

Pastors and parents, tell your young women of this wide open door. Send for catalogue and information. Give us the names of likely candidates. Give us the money to train them.

URSINUS MEMORIAL TABLET

This Ursinus Memorial Tablet, now adorning the Reformed Church at Neustadt, Germany, was dedicated on Sunday, August 31, 1924 by the Rev. Dr. John Baer Stoudt of Allentown, Pa. Mr. J. M. Steger of Neustadt was the sculptor, whose service Dr. James I. Good had secured in the summer of 1923. The sum for erecting the tablet, amounting to about $500.00, was given largely by the Catechetical Classes throughout the Reformed Church during recent years.

The inscription on the Tablet reads as follows:

This Memorial Tablet the Catechumens of the Reformed Church in the United States of North America dedicated in the year 1924 to the memory of the joint author of the Heidelberg Catechism, Zacharias Ursinus, born July 13, 1534, in Breslau; died November 6, 1583 in Neustadt.

The Tablet was the result of the work of a Committee of the Eastern Synod consisting of Revs. James I. Good, D.D., A. M. Schmidt, D.D., John Baer Stoudt, D.D., J. N. LeVan, S. L. Messinger and Elder W. W. Anspach.

A PRAYER

If I have worked for years with comrades dear,
And never heartened them with words of cheer,
Or helped with willing hands their path to clear,
Dear Lord, forgive!

If I have caused one child to miss the way,
If I have made one life a bit more gray,
If I have failed to lighten toil with play,
Dear Lord, forgive!

If I have been unsympathetic, cold,
If I the word of praise did e'er withhold,
If I have slighted those in service old,
Dear Lord, forgive!

Forgive me when I fail to watch and pray,
Keep me both kind and patient every day,
Then take me home at last with Thee to stay,
Dear Lord, Amen!

THE SESQUICENTENNIAL INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 1-DECEMBER 1, 1926.

The 150th Anniversary of the Signing of the Declaration of Independence will be fittingly commemorated at this great Sesquicentennial, and this, together with the meeting of our General Synod, will make the City of Brotherly Love the Mecca for thousands of Reformed Church members in 1926.

The "Sesqui" will constitute the world's greatest lesson to the present generation, every State and Territory of the United States and all peoples of the earth having been invited to participate in an exhibition of the progress made in Education, Economics, Arts, Science, Industry, Trade and Commerce since the Centennial Exposition, held in Philadelphia in 1876.

The dominating influences of the Exposition will be Religion, participated in by all creeds and denominations, and Education, which will include every agency from the Kindergarten to the University and make the Educational Building a world training school, in which teachers from every part of this country and abroad will find all attainable high peaks in the best methods and principles of Education. The Exposition will embrace the Air, the Soil, the Mine, the Forest and the Seas. From this great friendly contest, the betterment of national understanding and more intimate commercial relations will result, and on this foundation the hope of the world—universal peace—may arise as the child of good will.

Twenty-one foreign governments have sent either consular or diplomatic representatives to inspect the area set apart for foreign buildings in League Island Park proper, and each of these officials has reported favorably to his government. Japan has appropriated $486,000 and Japanese merchants have reserved 36,000 square feet in the Manufactures Palace. France, Belgium, Haiti, Poland, Nicaragua and Hungary have officially accepted our invitation. Holland, Denmark, Sweden, Austria, Brazil, Spain, India, Germany and Panama have signified their intention of being represented. A National Commission, consisting of the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Commerce, has been authorized by Congress to represent the National Government in the Exposition, and there will also be a National Advisory Commission to consist of two representatives from every state, territory and possession in the Union.

The City of Philadelphia to date has expended, or has authorized the expenditure of over $7,000,000, all of which directly affects the Exposition in preparation of its grounds and approaches; in addition to the $2,000,000 authorized for the construction of the Stadium and other Sesquicentennial developments. Tremendous interest in this patriotic celebration is being shown by Chambers of Commerce, Boards of Trade and other municipal and civic bodies, and by the great industrial, manufacturing and commercial enterprises here and abroad. Historic, patriotic, religious, educational, scientific, social and fraternal societies have signified their intention of exhibiting the objects and aims of their respective organizations, to show the visiting millions the progress that has been made during the past 50 years in those lines distinctive from trade, commerce, manufacture and general industry.

As is customary in international expositions, the exhibits will be judged by an International Jury of Awards and the prizes will be Grand Prize, Gold Medal, Silver Medal, Bronze Medal and Honorable Mention. The exhibit itself is subject to an award and the collaborators in the exhibit can also receive individual award, providing such an award is justified by the excellence of the exhibit. Those in charge believe that when the great object of the Exposition has been attained, Philadelphia will be able to feel that she has fostered and mothered a new spirit of international amity, strengthened the ties between the United States and its sister Nations, and spread upon the waters of a troubled world a benign and kindly influence which shall be felt everywhere.

ITEMS GLEANED FROM LAST YEAR'S RECORDS

In spite of the fact that about 40 per cent of the community changes residences during a twelve-month, St. Paul's Mission, Allentown, Pa., Rev. E. Elmer Sensenig, is gradually increasing and reducing their indebtedness.

Grace Church, Columbiana, Ohio, Rev. E. F. Wiest, D.D., (1924-1925) gave $4,887 for home purposes and $5,292 for benevolence, thus giving $405 more for others than for home work.

St. Stephen's, Lebanon, Pa., Rev. Pierce E. Swope, painted the exterior of their church, erected a new garage, reduced their debt over $1,000 and added 24 new members.

The Lemasters, Pa., Charge, Rev. E. V. Strasbaugh, purchased a beautiful parsonage in Lemasters, for approximately $6,000.

St. John's, Phoenixville, Pa., Rev. A. A. Hartman, spent $3,000 on church repairs and for a new piano, untype bulletin board and electric lights. New records in S. S. attendance were established.

Paradise congregation, Louisville, Ohio, Rev. F. W. Hoffman, erected a Bible School Building to home the elementary departments and remodelled their church auditorium to meet the needs of the growing congregation and Sunday School. The total cost of the improvements amounts to $40,000.

With repairs and improvements to several of the churches of the Rebersburg, Pa., Charge, Rev. W. A. McClellan, the splendid work moved rapidly forward. The most enjoyable event of the year was the meeting of West Susquehanna Classis in St. Peter's. All the Boards were represented by strong speakers.

Salem Church, of the Lykens Valley, Pa., Charge, Rev. Calvin P. Wehr, was remodelled, an annex, 40 x 32 ft., built and the pipe organ made entirely new. It is now modern in every respect. East Susquehanna Classis met here June 7. The pastor has entered upon his 22d year as pastor of this Charge.

Rev. A. J. Bachman, of the Schaefferstown, Pa., Charge, celebrated the 47th anniversary of his pastorate and the 42d anniversary of the Missionary Society of the congregation.

The pastorate of Rev. C. M. Mitzell in the Shrewsbury, Pa., Charge, began on September 1, 1924. A reception and donation was held. During the Classical year, ending May 30, 1924, 156 accessions were reported. Rev. Mitzell succeeded the late Rev. A. H. Herbst.

The parsonage and churches of the Wapwallopen, Pa., Charge, have been repaired and painted, thus evidencing new life in its local "Forward Movement" to the extent of about $15,000. This Charge very much enjoyed entertaining Wyoming Classis.

The Union Church of Tyringham, Mass., Rev. D. W. Kerr, rejoices over an increase of 60 per cent in the membership of the congregation during the past year.

First Church, Salisbury, N. C., Rev. B. J. Peeler, was renovated, inside and out; the parsonage improved; apportionment paid in full and 55 new members added during the year, a net gain of 48.

St. Luke's Church, Trappe, Pa., presented its pastor, Rev. Arthur C. Ohl, with a new Ford sedan. The Sunday School received a legacy of $1,000 from the estate of the late A. D. Reiff and $2,000 from the estate of the late John K. Harley.

St. John's, Lewisburg, Pa., Rev. H. H. Rupp, observed the centennial of its organization October 15-19, 1924. Five of the former pastors took part in the special services. This congregation was served by some famous pastors during the past one hundred years, namely, Rev. Henry H. Harbaugh, D.D., Rev. Benjamin Bausman, D.D., and Rev. R. L. Gerhart, D.D., the latter still living.

First Church, Fostoria, Ohio, Rev. E. D. Fager, with the other churches of Fostoria, conducted a very successful D. V. B. S., over 600 attending. This was the second summer. During the public school terms, the pastors of the city taught the Bible in the High School. The outline course was written by Rev. Fager.

Canal Winchester, Ohio, Rev. S. I. Royer, takes a just pride in having a Sunday School Class of 12 women whose average age is 80 years. No deaths in this Class for over 5 years.

A number of improvements have been made in St. Paul's and Trinity Churches, Sugar Creek, Ohio, Charge, Rev. O. T. Moyer, and also in the parsonage. A fine increase in Church and Sunday School attendance. Future prospects are encouraging.

Rev. F. Zechiel, of Apple Creek, Ohio, is the author of a cooperative plan for raising pastors' salaries, based on an equal per capita contribution for this purpose. The matter is now pending before North East Ohio Classis and referred to a special committee of 4 ministers and 4 elders to report next year.

Rev. Morgan A. Peters was installed as pastor of the historic Tulpehocken Charge, on November 23, 1924, by a committee of Lebanon Classis. The first Holy Communion in Trinity Church was observed October 18, 1927, 32 communing.

Fine progress in Salem Church, Pearl City, Ill., Rev. John Mohr. The total enrollment jumped from 80 to 109. An orchestra was organized, which proved a fine attraction in the rural church and drew big audiences for evening worship.

In addition to the D. V. B. S., 20 sessions were held from January to May, in Trinity Church, Detroit, Mich., Rev. F. W. Bald, B.D., for the first six public school grades, divided into two groups and taught by the pastor and Miss Hannig.

The pastorate of Rev. Chalmers Wilson Walck began in Grace Church, Frederick, Md., on July 1, 1924. During the Classical year, 170 members were added.

Bethany, York, Pa., Rev. George S. Sorber, D.D., began an addition to their church building on September 15, 1924. This consists of a main floor and balcony both of which are arranged to open into the main auditorium. The first floor is occupied by the Junior Department of the Sunday School and the second floor by the Young Men's Bible Class. There is a seating capacity for 100 on each floor. Further improvements are in progress in a rearrangement of the chancel in preparation for the installation of a pipe organ.

The 15th anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. J. B. Bloom in the Church at St. Joseph, Missouri, was celebrated in November, 1924, with special services and a banquet and efforts resulting in raising most of the Forward Movement pledge, clearing the church indebtedness and materially increasing the pastor's salary.

The people in Trinity congregation, Telford, Pa., Charge, Rev. George W. Spotts, displayed a loyal spirit in church attendance and in benevolence which averaged $8.00 per member. This does not include Forward Movement funds. Immanuel's congregation had about the same average for benevolence per member.

First Church, Waukesha, Wis., Rev. H. G. Settlege, was enlarged, the old building remodeled and re-decorated throughout, a modern heating system installed, the organ was repaired and provided with an additional stop and a number of other improvements made at a cost which exceeded $32,000.

FOOD FOR MIND AND HEART

Those who have been readers of the Church paper for years do not need to be convinced of its power for good. In many thousands of homes it has proved itself a real blessing. If we are to maintain a Church in which educational religion and religious education are not simply theories, but actual facts, we must have a reading people—families who are intelligently informed with regard to the activities and the needs of Christ's Kingdom. The Reformed Church Messenger ($2.50), our oldest Church paper, is edited by Rev. Dr. Paul S. Leinbach, with the Rev. A. S. Bromer as Associate Editor. The Christian World ($2.25) is edited by the Rev. Dr. H. S. Gekeler. The Kirchenzeitung ($2.50), our German paper, is edited by the Rev. Dr. Carl F. Heyl. The Reformed Church Review ($2.00), our theological journal, is edited by Profs. T. F. Herman, G. W. Richards, A. S. Zerbe, and A. E. Dahlmann, representing all our theological seminaries. The Outlook of Missions is published monthly, price $1.00, and the International Journal of Religious Education, monthly, costs $2.00. Remember that a truly Reformed Church must be an informed Church. Too many homes are now without Christian literature. One of the greatest services you can render to Protestantism is to inspire a love of good reading in the hearts and minds of the people. And the only genuine statesmanship is to begin with the children in the home.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM A GREAT LEADER

Every day of my experience as a Church administrator increases my sense of the value of religious journalism. Much well-intentioned and serious-minded religious feeling is at the present time failing to make any strong impact for good, through sheer lack of religious information and education. The grossest misunderstandings abound, the most inadequate conceptions prevail, simply because the people are depending upon secular newspapers and magazines for information concerning religious matters. I would be the last to disparage the importance of such secular publications. They are doing an indispensable work, but their utterances are lamentably lacking in the realm of religious thought. Nothing has taken the place of the distinctively religious paper as a medium of imparting information and of creating sound religious understanding. If the Religious Press is not supported, we shall experience a great lack in religious effort—a lack which nothing but the Religious Press can fill.

CENTRAL PUBLISHING HOUSE

The accompanying illustration will give an idea of the beautiful new building now being erected by the Central Publishing House, which is so much needed for its rapidly growing business, developed under the management of Rev. Dr. August Becker, and the present wide-awake business manager, Mr. P. Wetzel. The Society, which today is known as the Central Publishing House, was organized and started its work of distributing Christian literature in 1858, and the building now being constructed is the fourth to be erected since its organization. This new expansion was made possible by the Forward Movement. Without the help given by the Forward Movement the management would not have seen its way clear to go ahead with the building operation at this time.

The progress of the Central Publishing House as an agency of the Church developed to such proportions that after many years of cramped quarters in carrying on its work, this new building will add about 12,000 sq. ft., adjoining and connecting with the old building, making 24,000 sq. ft. of floor space devoted to Christian literature. The new building is being erected of reinforced concrete, with brick facing, and is fire-proof throughout, with modern improvements and elevator. After the plant has been moved into the new building, the old building will be remodeled, the retail store enlarged, and a new modern store-front erected. There will be a large display room for Church and Sunday School supplies, with a theological book department, and a reading or committee room to be connected. Plans call, also, for several smaller conference rooms, which, if necessary, can be thrown into one. Ultimately, the entire old building will be made to conform with the new. With the removal of the plant into the new building, all machinery will be equipped with individual motors, stock rooms will have steel shelving, and the building will be furnished with a complete telephone system, time-clocks, etc. All these changes are expected to be made by the fall of 1926, and then the Central Publishing House looks forward to a greater opportunity to serve the Church.

REV. R. W. MILLER, D.D.

As this edition of the ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK was on the press, the sad news came to us of the death of the Executive Secretary of the Publication and Sunday School Board, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D.D., one of the best known and most devoted sons of the Reformed Church. A fuller account of his life and work must be held over until next year.

For the last five years he lived in Doylestown with his daughter, Mrs. Calvin F. Boyer, and frequently supplied the pulpits of other pastors. He is survived by seven children, eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The funeral was held in Salem Church, Doylestown, Pa., with interment in the adjacent Cemetery.

SCHAAF, REV. CARL MARTIN, D.D., was born in Hesse, Darmstadt, Germany, March 2, 1852, and died July 30, 1925, in Clarence, N. Y. His early education was received in the country of his birth. After his father's death he came at the age of seventeen to America to his uncle, Dr. Carl Schaaf, then pastor of our Church at Sandusky, O. He continued his education in Heidelberg College and Seminary, graduating in 1875, and was ordained and installed at New Berlin, near Canton, O. Later he was supply pastor at St. John's, Ft. Wayne, Ind., for one year, then served North Lima Charge nine years. For a year he served in reorganizing neglected parishes in California, but had to relinquish that work because of throat trouble. He then served the following charges: Huntingdon, Ind., Zion, Louisville, Ky., each 5 years; Prospect, O., 13 years; Covington, Ky., 8 years; Spencerville, O., 2 years; and Calvary, Clarence, N. Y., almost 7 years. May 23, 1878, he was married to Miss Katherine M. Neireiter, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., who survives, with two children, Mrs. C. Brady, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Rev. Nevin H. Schaaf, of Wabash, Ind. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him some years ago by Heidelberg University. He was able to serve his Church acceptably until the end of his life, and occupied the pulpit a week before he became ill. He was known and beloved by many, irrespective of denomination and creed. Services were conducted by the officers of W. New York Classis on August 1, and interment was made in the beautiful cemetery at Clarence.

SCHAFFNER, REV. PAUL FRANKLIN, was born in Hummelstown, Pa., August 30, 1889, son of Franklin J. and Isabelle (Rhoads) Schaffner, and died March 29, 1925, in his 36th year. After graduating from F. and M. College in 1912, and Lancaster Theological Seminary in 1915, Mr. Schaffner was appointed missionary to Japan, where he became one of our most faithful and useful workers, whose quiet and faithful spirit, patient devotion and lovable disposition endeared him to all. He was married to Sarah Horting Swords, who survives, together with three children, Martha Louise, Franklin James, and Isabelle Rhoads. After a furlough, in which he had taken special studies in Boston University, Mr. Schaffner returned to his field of labor in September, 1924, with every promise of increasing usefulness. He became ill on March 18, while attending a meeting of the Evangelical Board at Sendai, and returned to his home at Wakamatsu. Becoming worse, he was taken to the hospital in Tokyo. There it was found that a carbuncle in the face was merely a symptom of an acute case of diabetes, which finally affected the brain and caused meningitis. The funeral service was held in St. Andrew's Church, Tokyo, March 31, and on April 1 in the chapel of the North Japan College, Sendai, when many friends gathered to mourn the death of this splendid missionary, who was called away in the prime of life. The entire denomination was deeply grieved over this great loss, and the sympathy of a host of friends went out to the bereaved family and to the mission in Japan which is so much impoverished by the passing of this consecrated man of God.

SCHOEPFLE, REV. CHRISTIAN HENRY, was born in Gruetzingen, Baden, Germany, June 28, 1840, and died November 23, 1924, at Dayton, O. He came to America while still a youth, locating at Sandusky, O., and was the first student in the Mission House. While studying in that institution he was instrumental in organizing several congregations. His studies were interrupted to serve in the Wisconsin Volunteers during the Civil War. He was in several important battles, was wounded, cited for bravery under fire and offered promotion, which he did not accept. After the war he entered the ministry, being licensed by Sheboygan Classis in 1864. He served the following congregations: Watertown, Wis., Waukon, Ia., Howard's Grove, Wis., Kiel, Wis., LaCrosse, Wis. (to which pastorate he was recalled after an absence of two years), Mormon Cools, Wis., Dayton, O., Birmingham, O., Cleveland, O., Defiance, O., Vera Cruz and New Middletown, Ind., and Helvetia, W. Va. For some years he lived retired at Birmingham, O., but spent his final years on earth in the Soldiers' Homes at Sandusky and Dayton. June 18, 1866, he was married to Miss Maria Emig. They had ten children, of whom six survive: Mrs. Lydia Stringfield, Mrs. Anna Zeller, Mrs. Louise Potter, Rev. Marcus Schoepfle, Solomon Schoepfle and Otto Schoepfle. He was buried at Birmingham, O., November 26.

SHUFORD, REV. JULIUS H., was born near Hickory, N. C., December 14, 1849, and died at King's Creek, N. C., October 13, 1924, aged 74 years, 9 months and 24 days. He studied at Catawba College and Ursinus College, and was licensed to preach in 1874, being ordained and installed as pastor of Grace Charge, where he served two years. His other charges were: W. Rowan, 1876-77; Grace, 1878-80; Altamont, Ill., 1881-84; Astoria, 1884-87; Upper Davidson, 1887-88; Middlebrook, Va., 1888-94; until 1899 he supplied charges in the Shenandoah Valley, and since that time gave himself largely to historical research. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Eli Ramseur, of Hickory. The funeral was conducted at Bethel Church, October 14, and he was interred in the adjoining cemetery.

STAUFFER, REV. JOHN J., was born near Allentown, Pa., July 11, 1860, and died September 5, 1924. He graduated from Ursinus College and Ursinus School of Theology and was ordained in 1886, and installed as pastor of the East Berlin Charge, E. Berlin, Pa. During his ministry of thirty-five years, he also served in Weissport, Pa., Elizabethville, O., Thornville, O., and Mt. Zion

STEM, REV. GEORGE PRESTON, was born at Cherryville, Pa., Dec. 14, 1864, and died in Northampton, Pa., Sept. 29, 1925, aged 61. He graduated from Franklin & Marshall College in 1886, and after teaching 2 years at Slatington, entered the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, graduating in 1891. He was ordained to the ministry on June 5 of that year, and installed as pastor at Littlestown, where he served 8 years. He became the associate of Rev. Dr. W. A. Hofford, of the Egypt, Pa., Charge, and after Dr. Hofford's death became the pastor, being installed June 2, 1901, and serving continuously until his death. His records show that he baptized more than 1,100 children and conducted over 3,400 services, being frequently a delegate to the higher judicatories of the Church, and serving as President of his Classis. He was active in the Pennsylvania German Society, the Lehigh County Historical Society, and stood high in Masonic circles. He is survived by his wife, nee Elizabeth Laubach, one son, Laury G., of Newark, N. J., and one daughter, Miss Caroline L., teacher in the Northampton High School. The funeral was held Oct. 2, with interment in the Howertown Cemetery.

SWANDER, REV. JOHN I., D.D., PH.D., was born in Hope Township, Warren Co., N. J., May 3, 1833, and died in Tiffin, O., January 9, 1925, aged 91 years, 8 months and 6 days. During his infancy his father settled in the woods near Tiffin, O., and in due time he became a student at Heidelberg College, where he resolved to prepare for the ministry. He graduated from the Theological Seminary at Tiffin in 1859, and served five charges: First Church, Dayton, O.; Kinnickinnick Charge, O.; Union Charge, O.; Christ Church, Latrobe; First Church, Freemont, O. In 1877 he was appointed to fill temporarily the Chair of Dogmatic and Practical Theology in Heidelberg Seminary. In 1891 he was elected to the Chair of Practical Theology, a position he held until 1895. In 1902 the Sarah Ellen and Nevin Ambrose Lectureship was established at the Seminary at Lancaster, and for years he gave annually a course of lectures on this foundation. In 1895, he and Mrs. Swander endowed the chair of Systematic Theology in the same institution. On March 29, 1860, Dr. Swander was married to Miss Barbara Kimmel, of Dayton, O. Their two children, Sarah Ellen and Nevin Ambrose, after whom the professorship at Lancaster is named, died in early youth. Dr. Swander filled many positions of trust and honor in the Church and community, and his benefactions reached across the seas. He was a prolific writer, at least a score of books bearing his name, and many articles being published in theological and scientific journals. He received honorary degrees from various institutions, and his mind remained alert and active almost to the last day of his long and useful life. He is survived by his sister, Mrs. Lang, who ministered to him lovingly in his last years. The funeral was held in Grace Church, Tiffin, with interment in Greenlawn Cemetery.

VAN HAAGEN, PROF. JOHN, D.D., was born April 28, 1835, in Oytten, Germany, and died January 2, 1925, at Milwaukee, Wis., at the age of 89 years, 8 months and 4 days. He came to America at the age of 21, locating in Philadelphia, where he found employment in a factory belonging to his brother. In 1859, he entered F. & M. College, graduating in 1863, and served as Instructor in that institution until 1865, when he went to Germany to continue his studies at the University of Berlin. Returning in 1869, he was called as professor to Ursinus, which was established that year. For sixteen years he taught the ancient classics, Hebrew, German and History. In 1885, he was elected professor of Church History in the Mission House Theological Seminary. He began his work in 1886. He was later given the chair of Exegetical Theology, including Hebrew, New Testament Greek and Biblical Theology. He also taught philosophy, psychology, logic and Christian ethics in the college. Since June, 1906, he was professor emeritus, and for 18 years lived a quiet life in the circle of his family. He is survived by his wife, 2 sons and 3 daughters. The funeral was held in the family home at Milwaukee, January 5. The memory of the splendid Christian character and self-sacrifice of this great teacher abides in many hearts.

YOCKEY, DR. SAMUEL B., was born in Wadsworth, O., 1843, and died at Springfield, O., December 12, 1924, at the age of 81. After graduating from Heidelberg Seminary in 1868, Dr. Yockey became pastor of the Church in Xenia, O.; he also served in Columbus, O., and Wichita, Kans., and more recently in the Presbyterian Church at Kingston, O. The interest of Dr. and Mrs. Yockey in the cause of missions made the congregation at Xenia the possessor of the first W.M.S. in our denomination. It was also due to his friendly interest that the first endowments were secured for Heidelberg College. Besides his wife, Dr. Yockey is survived by a son, Paul B. Yockey, and a daughter, Mrs. J. D. Steel, both of Xenia. The funeral was held from the home of Mrs. Steel in that city.

Life Annuity Bonds

If you are living on your income and will in all likelihood never need to spend the principal, why not make a perfectly safe investment at a fair rate of interest by taking a Life Annuity Bond? You will receive the interest as long as you live and the Board will have the use of the money at once.

Write to the Secretary of the Board you are interested in. He will explain the plan to you.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

of the Reformed Church in the United States

Founded at Carlisle, March, 1825

LANCASTER, PA.

This School of Theology, the oldest educational institution of the Reformed Church, is conducted under the direction of three English Synods: The Eastern Synod, the Pittsburgh Synod and the Synod of the Potomac.

Its financial affairs are managed by a Board of Trustees, consisting of eighteen laymen. Instruction and discipline are subject to the authority of a Board of Visitors, consisting of twelve ministers. The Visitors and Trustees are chosen from the ministers and laymen of the three Synods.

The Course of Instruction embraces three years and includes all the branches of a complete education for the Christian ministry.

A fine Dormitory and Refectory were recently added to the equipment, in which room and board may be had at reasonable rates.

The Seminary year begins on the second Thursday of September.

Little's Cross and Crown System

Doubles Sunday School Attendance and Offerings

No. 0

No. 0 celluloid pin color blue and white, $1.25 per 100.

No. 1

No. 1 Bronze Cross and Crown Pin, 8 cents each.

How to Use the System

Begin by presenting every scholar with the No. 0 celluloid pin. For every term of three months' uninterrupted attendance the pupil earns a reward. For the first term the No. 1 pin; for the second the No. 2 pin; for the third the No. 3x pin; for the fourth the No. 6 pin. Thirteen consecutive Sundays may be considered as three months. Pupils absent without a satisfactory excuse lose the interrupted term, but may begin a new term the next Sunday they attend, continuing to wear the pin already earned.

Each pin obtained is to be worn until the next higher grade is earned, but surrendered upon receiving the new one. The No. 6 solid gold pin is presented outright, and with it a handsome lithographed certificate, 9 x 11 inches, with seal and ribbon attached (for framing). For each additional reward earned another seal and ribbon is attached. These certificates are free to schools. Send for sample.

The System pays for itself by increased offerings as evidenced by numerous testimonials, and may be started successfully at any time. This has been repeatedly proven by actual results.

No. 2

No. 2 gunmetal finished pin, blue enameled cross, white ribbon, red background, 20 cents each.

No. 6

No. 6 solid gold hand engraved pin red cross, blue ribbon, white background, enameled, $1.05 each.

No. 3x

No. 3x silver plated hand engraved pin, red enameled cross, white ribbon, blue background, 25 cents each.

What 133 years mean to you

TIME weakens an individual but strengthens an institution. This is definitely and importantly true of insurance organizations.

In selecting an insurance policy remember that a policy protected by 133 years of company history is a double safeguard.

The Insurance Company of North America, "The Oldest American Fire and Marine Insurance Company," puts behind its every policy a record of 133 years of met obligations.

In Colonial Days this company protected the commerce and the homes of Americans. Today it offers its long history as proof of its certain strength. A North America policy is a wise protection.
